

March 21, 1924.

My dear Mr. Burnet:--

Thank you -- the Songs have gone forward to you, with my autograph -- which I ventured to put on in view of your remarks about California and Pomona College -- and "The Land of Sunshine." It was a pity to lose your files of that -- for it really was a magazine with something in it.

I feel confident these Songs will give you a valued taste of the real California that was, and that you will recognize it and will love them.

Sincerely yours,

Mr dear Mr Lummis,

I enclose my check for $1.50 for a personal copy of your Spanish songs.

I lived in California as a boy from 1890 to 1896 and not infrequently wish myself there now with a library job on which I could support my small family!' Went to Pomona College for a couple of years, where I happened to see you more than once.

By the way I had my not extensive file of the old Land of Sunshine (as well as that of the Lark) stolen from me. Still unreconciled.

Very truly yours
